Can the WTO be Resuscitated? Implications for Korea and the Asia Pacific

Dr. Jean-Pierre Lehmann

IGE/KITA Global Trade Forum

December 7, 2012

Dr. Jean-Pierre Lehmann, professor emeritus of the IMD and founder of the Evian Group, will discuss the current global trade and investment environment and its implications for Korea and the Asia and Pacific. Specifically, Dr. Lehmann will address:

- What are the current forces and trends in globalization?
- What are the implications of a moribund WTO, especially for Korea and the Asia Pacific?
- What can be done to resuscitate the WTO?
- What could be the role of Korea in this process?
