

IGE Press Release

September 26, 2013

IGE/KITA Global Trade Forum

“Japanese Politics and Abenomics: Implications for Korea and the World”

Speaker: David Asher

Senior Fellow of the Center for a New American Security (CNAS)

Time and Date: 07:00-09:00, Friday, September 27, 2013

Venue: Tulip Room, The Westin Chosun Hotel

David Asher will present an analytical view on the current state and prospect of Japan’s politics and Abenomics and the implications for Korea and the world.

※ David Asher has served the US government in various capacities, including as special adviser for East Asia and Pacific Affairs in the US State Department. He is now an up and coming Asia strategist who works at the Center for a New American Security as a Senior Fellow.

The IGE/KITA Global Trade Forum will be attended by policymakers, business people, researchers and scholars, diplomats, and journalists.