

IGE Press Release

May 14, 2014

The 224th IGE's Distinguished Lecture Forum

Speaker: Roberto Azevêdo, Director-General, World Trade Organization

Topic: "The World Trade Environment and the Role of the WTO"

Time and Date: 08:00-9:30, Friday, May 16, 2014

Venue: Ruby Room, Yeong Bin Gwan, Hotel Shilla

Sponsored by KITA

The Institute for Global Economics will host Roberto Azevêdo, Director-General of the World Trade Organization, to speak on the current status of the global trade environment and the role of the WTO at its Distinguished Lecture Forum on his first visit to Korea.

The Director-General will also have a press conference immediately after the IGE Forum.

The Forum will be attended by distinguished academics, researchers, policymakers, businessmen, diplomatic corps and journalists.