

IGE Press Release

January 14, 2015

<The 231st IGE Distinguished Lecture Forum>

Speaker: H.E. Jeroen Dijsselbloem

President, The Eurogroup / Minister of Finance, The Netherlands

Topic: “The EU Economy in 2015: Will It Take Off?”

Time and Date: 07:00-9:00, Thursday, January 15, 2015

Venue: Orchid Room, 2nd Floor, The Westin Chosun Hotel

Sponsored by the Korea International Trade Association

The Institute for Global Economics will host Mr. Jeroen Dijsselbloem, the President of the Eurogroup and Finance Minister of the Netherlands, to speak on his views and insights on the current state and prospect of the eurozone economy in 2015 and its implications for the global economy.

(The Eurogroup is a meeting of finance ministers of the 19 eurozone members. It is the main forum for the management of the single currency area.)

The 231st IGE Distinguished Lecture Forum will be attended by distinguished academics, researchers, policymakers, financial leaders and businessmen, diplomatic corps, and journalists.