

IGE Press Release

May 20, 2015

<The 235th IGE Distinguished Lecture Forum>

Speaker: Prof. Dr. h. c. Peter Hartz

Former Advisor to German Chancellor Gerhard Schroeder

Former Head of the “Hartz” Labour Commission

Topic: “The “Hartz” Labor Reforms of Germany and the Implications for Korea”

Time and Date: 07:00-9:00, Thursday, May 21, 2015

Venue: Emerald Room, 2nd Floor, Lotte Hotel Seoul

Sponsored by the Korea International Trade Association

The Institute for Global Economics will host Prof. Dr. h. c. Peter Hartz, former Advisor to German Chancellor Gerhard Schroeder and head of the “Hartz” Labour Commission, to its Distinguished Lecture Forum. Mr. Hartz will share his own experiences and insights as head of the “Hartz” Labour Commission that paved the way for strong performance of the German economy today. He will also discuss the implications for the Korea’s endeavor for labor reform.

The 235th IGE Distinguished Lecture Forum will be attended by a large number of distinguished academics, researchers, policymakers, financial leaders and businessmen, diplomatic corps, and journalists.

/End/