

IGE Press Release

May 30, 2015

“Chairman Il SaKong to Give Special Lecture to Hungarian Government and Central Bank Officials”

Dr. Il SaKong, Chairman of the Institute for Global Economics (IGE), is to leave for Hungary on invitation by the Hungarian government to give a special lecture on the Korea’s economic development and its implications for Hungary.

The special lecture will be attended by Hungarian government and central bank officials.

In addition, Dr. SaKong is scheduled to meet with Mr. Görygy Matolcsy, Governor of the Hungarian Central Bank, Magyar Nemzeti Bank, who was the former Minister of Economy and Mr. Istvan Mikola, State Secretary for Security Policy and International Cooperation, who was the former Minister of Health.

/End/