

IGE Press Release

June 01, 2015

<The 236th IGE Distinguished Lecture Forum>

Speaker: Mr. Guy Sorman

French Columnist and Public Intellectual in Economics and Philosophy

Topic: “What can Korea Learn from Europe’s Slow Growth?”

Time and Date: 07:00-9:00, Tuesday, June 2, 2015

Venue: Maple Room, 4th Floor, The Plaza Hotel

Sponsored by the Korea International Trade Association

The Institute for Global Economics will host Mr. Guy Sorman, French Columnist and Public Intellectual in Economics and Philosophy, to its Distinguished Lecture Forum. Mr. Guy Sorman will share his insights on Europe's slow growth from diverse perspectives including political and structural economic policies. He will also discuss the implications of European stagnation for the Korean Economy.

The 236th IGE Distinguished Lecture Forum will be attended by distinguished academics, researchers, policymakers, financial leaders and businessmen, diplomatic corps, and journalists.

/End/