

IGE Press Release

July 08, 2015

<The 237th IGE Distinguished Lecture Forum>

Speaker: H.E. Doris Leuthard

Former President of Switzerland,

Head of the Federal Department of the Environment, Transport, Energy and Communication, Switzerland

Topic: “Global Energy and Environmental Issues and Switzerland”

Time and Date: 07:00-9:00, Thursday, July 9, 2015

Venue: Orchid Room, 2nd Fl, The Westin Chosun Hotel

In association with the Embassy of Switzerland and the SKBC

The Institute for Global Economics will host Switzerland’s minister of the environment, transport, energy and communication, H.E. Doris Leuthard, to its Distinguished Lecture Forum. Minister Leuthard will share her insights on the current global energy and environmental issues including the special experience of Swiss and will discuss the implications for Korea.

The 237th IGE Distinguished Lecture Forum will be attended by distinguished academics, researchers, policymakers, financial leaders and businessmen, diplomatic corps, and journalists.

/End/