

IGE Press Release

December 11, 2015

<The 245th IGE Distinguished Lecture Forum>

Speaker: Dr. Sudhir Shetty

Chief Economist, East Asia and Pacific, The World Bank

Dr. Philip O’Keefe

Lead Economist, Social Protection and Labor Global Practice, The World Bank

Topic: “Population Aging and Economic Growth in the East Asia and Pacific Region”

Time and Date: 07:00-09:00, Tuesday, December 15, 2015

Venue: Orchid Room, 2nd Fl, Westin Chosun Seoul

Sponsored by World Bank Group

The Institute for Global Economics will host Dr. Sudhir Shetty, Chief Economist and Dr. Philip O’Keefe, Lead Economist at the World Bank, to its Distinguished Lecture Forum. Dr. Sudhir Shetty and Dr. Philip O’Keefe will share their insights and expert views on population aging and economic growth in East Asia and Pacific, particularly in Korea, China, and Japan, and the risks and opportunities demographic changes present towards sustainable growth in these countries.

The 245th IGE Distinguished Lecture Forum will be attended by distinguished academics, researchers, policymakers, financial leaders and businessmen, diplomatic corps, and journalists.

/End/