

IGE Press Release

February 19, 2016

<The 247th IGE Distinguished Lecture Forum>

Speaker: Dr. Hung Tran

Executive Managing Director, Institute of International Finance

Topic: “Key Themes and Risks of the Global Economy in 2016”

Time and Date: 07:00-09:00, Tuesday, February 23, 2016

Venue: Orchid Room, 2nd Fl, Westin Chosun Seoul

The Institute for Global Economics will host Dr. Hung Tran, Executive Managing Director at the Institute of International Finance (IIF), to its Distinguished Lecture Forum. With extensive experience in financial markets and institutions, Dr. Hung Tran will share his enlightening views on a number of 2016 key trends including divergence in monetary policies, low oil and commodity prices, a high level of debt and underperformance of emerging market equities and the implications for Korea and the world.

The 247th IGE Distinguished Lecture Forum will be attended by distinguished academics, researchers, policymakers, financial leaders and businessmen, diplomatic corps, and journalists.

/End/