The IGE cordially invites you to a webinar featuring Mr. Tai Hui, Chief Market Strategist at J.P. Morgan Asset Management. Amid the risks of surging global interest rates, decisive FX interventions, and mounting geopolitical uncertainties ahead of the pivotal US-China Summit later this month, financial markets are facing a critical Q4 inflection point. Join us as we unpack these complex dynamics and assess their impact on global and domestic markets. We will also discuss actionable scenarios to optimize asset allocation and capture alpha. We look forward to your participation.
